RULED WRONG AND PROMPTLY REVERSED IT

A ruling on one question has been sent out from the Attorney General's office on July 22 and among other things it was said: "A person must not only have paid his poll tax, but also his state and county taxes, in order to qualify him to vote."

On the 22nd, another statement came out from Austin saying that the ruling was not intended as meaning that a voter must pay his state and county ad valorem tax before being allowed to vote, and yet it said so in plain English.

Mr. Lanning says: "Our ruling is that voters must have paid their state and county poll taxes before Feb. 1." He says that he has not ruled that an unclean tax must be paid. Instead of this being an explanation, it is a reversal and we are left to wonder just what sort of a hotel is running the legal department of the state government.

The Anderson County Farmers Union has adopted strong resolutions condemning their state president, W. T. Lewis, and Peter Bradford for their sending out weekly state letters advising the people how to vote and also starting a bitter trade against the ministers. The next organization is to be congratulated on its stand against these two political alleged leaders, and if a majority of the unions of Texas would take a stand they would soon be relegated to the scrap pile, where they belong. They are hurting the cause of the Farmers Union and we predict they will soon be ousted from the union, because that glorious organization does not want to mix in politics, and that is what Mrs. Bradford and Lewis are doing with the sacred trust entrusted to them. They should be expelled from the Farmers Union—Palestine Record.

Mrs. Geo. W. Harris and family have returned from Corpus Christi and other points in south Texas.

The Claiborne Reporter has been moved to Girard the thirty new railroad town in the east part of Kent county. The Reporter will continue to be a Kent County paper and will carry the local interests of Claiborne.
